

MISS HANNA TAYLOR BECOMES BRIDE OF C. C. BAYLY TONIGHT

Marriage of Widespread Interest to Be Solemnized Here This Evening.

RECEPTION WILL FOLLOW

Ceremony Will Be Quiet, But Many Will Be Entertained Afterward at Rauscher's.

A marriage of widespread interest to society in Washington will be solemnized this evening, when Miss Hanna Taylor will become the bride of Charles Bayly.

Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hanna Taylor. Her association from childhood has been with the resident contingent of the Capital, and she has maintained close and pleasant relations with the Diplomatic Corps.

Her father was formerly American minister to Spain, and is one of the foremost authorities in the country on international law.

Mr. Bayly comes of a distinguished Maryland family, and is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Clay Bayly, of Washington.

Few At Ceremony.

The ceremony, which will be performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, in O street, will be attended only by a small gathering of relatives and close friends. A large reception at Rauscher's will be held at 9 o'clock.

The house will be charmingly decorated in green and white, with white lilies and bride roses clustering against a background of palms. The bride couple will stand before an improvised altar in the bay window of the drawing room, which will be lighted by tapers in an antique brass candelabrum of Russian design.

White roses will fill the altar vases and graceful palms will flank the space behind the altar. A stringed orchestra will play the wedding music.

The Rev. E. L. Buckley, of St. Matthew's Church, will officiate, and the bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Reid Hunt, of Boston, as matron of honor, Miss Elena Calderon, daughter of the minister of Bolivia, as maid of honor, and one small flower girl, Miss Marian Taylor, niece of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeBaron Taylor, of Mobile.

Miss Taylor's two brothers, Hanna Taylor, Jr., and Alfred Taylor will be ushers, and Walter Parker will be best man for Mr. Bayly.

Princess Lace Gown.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a lovely gown of Princess lace, made on simple lines over a foundation of cloth of silver.

The bodice is embroidered in pearls and a long court train of heavy white satin will add dignity to the costume. A double bandeau of silver, embroidered in pearls, will hold the veil of Princess bordered with a cloud of filmy tulle, which will fall from the back of the head; and the bride will carry garlands and lilies of the valley arranged in an old-fashioned lace holder.

Mrs. Hunt's gown is of rainbow tulle in pastel shades of blue, pink, and yellow, made with a bouffant skirt and a bodice of pompadour silk.

Miss Calderon will wear a dainty frock of yellow tulle and tulle with a quail bodice and the skirt built out over a hoop; and the little flower girl's frock is of white transparent cloth lace trimmed, and worn with a yellow sash. All the attendants will carry colonial bouquets of Lady Hillingdon roses in paper lace holders.

At the reception at Rauscher's, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will receive with the bride and bridesmaid, assisted by Mr. Bayly's sister, Miss Pearl Bayly, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bayly.

Mrs. Taylor's Gown.

Mrs. Taylor will wear a handsome costume of white brocade and lace, combined with tulle, white tulle, and satin has been used in the making of Miss Bayly's charming frock, and Mrs. Bayly will be gowned in black lace.

The decorations will be of palms and yellow roses, and in the large ball room there will be dancing during the evening.

When Mr. Bayly and his bride leave for their wedding trip, they will take a smart traveling suit of navy blue tulle, with a rose pink hat trimmed with black wings. They will make their home at the Don Carlos, where they have taken an apartment.

Among the guests who came to Washington for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, and Miss Corinne LeBaron, all of Mobile, Ala., who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. George Whitwell, of Philadelphia; Lieutenant and Mrs. Rowe, of Fort Monroe; and Mrs. Joseph Parker-Noyes, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bayly's cousins, Lee Chapman and Bayly Chapman, of Baltimore, will also attend the wedding at the home of Katherine Brady, George Brady, and Fannie Brady, also of Baltimore.

Candles For Cannon.

Congressman Joseph Cannon, who yesterday celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary, is the guest in compliment to whom Congressman Ira C. Copley will entertain at dinner this evening. There will be eighty guests, eighty candles on the cake, and all manner of changes will be rung on the fourscore years of the honor guest.

The dinner will be served in the ball room of the Willard at one great table arranged about a delightful sunken garden alcove with spring flowers.

Members of the Senate and the House, many of whom have had long association with Mr. Cannon during his years of service in Congress, will make up the guest list. Clifford Berryman, the cartoonist, who has pictured Mr. Cannon in the various phases of his political career, will be the only other guest.

Mrs. Armstrong entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon of ten covers this afternoon at her home, Tudor place, in Georgetown. The table had a centerpiece of pink spring flowers. Coffee was served in the temple.

SPRING-RICES GUESTS AT DINNER TONIGHT

The British Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice will be the guests of honor at the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis will give tonight. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Lansing will be among the guests later in the evening to the Octagon House to witness the tableaux for the benefit of the British wounded. Capt. and Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin will entertain at dinner tonight in compliment to their house guests, Mrs. Arthur Callaghan and Miss Edith Bull, of San Francisco. Later in the evening the party will attend the tableaux at the Octagon House for the benefit of the British wounded. Mrs. Baldwin will be hostess at a luncheon on Friday in honor of her guests. Captain and Mrs. Baldwin, their house guests, and Miss Katherine Judge occupied their box at the horse show this afternoon, and had as their guests J. Low Harriman and Dr. George Poniet, of the Bulgarian legation.

Mrs. Peter will leave Washington about June 15 for her country place at Cambridge, N. Y., where she will pass the summer.

Mrs. William Post, Mrs. Charles Oelrichs, and Mrs. Andrew Moreland will come to Washington from New York on Wednesday to spend several days with former Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. George Mayne.

Mrs. Lloyd W. Bowers will come to Washington tomorrow from New York to visit Mrs. John F. Rodgers.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister.

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can so easily relieve pain, soreness, or stiffness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE.

MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister!

MUSTEROLE gives prompt relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Cuts, Frostbite, Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia). At your druggist's in 8c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE, and refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.—Adv.

SOCIETY JOINS IN BENEFIT TABLEUX

Capital's Talented Amateurs to Appear Today at Octagon House Bazaar.

Preparations are now completed for the bazaar which is to be given at Octagon House today, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in aid of British wounded soldiers, which will embody many interesting and unusual features. Of an afternoon, tea will be served in the delightful walled garden. There will be music and dancing and a sale of fancy articles from booths representing the colonial possessions of Great Britain.

Each evening there will be a vaudeville performance, when Washington's talented amateurs will have the assistance of Miss Elsie Janie, Miss Constance Collier, Miss Ina Claire, Miss Lois Fox, and a number of other professionals of national reputation. The program will, in fact, vary from night to night, except that each evening there will be music and dancing, with competition dancing for handsome prizes and exhibitions of professional dancing to give variety.

Brilliant Tableaux.

The most important event of this evening's program will be a brilliant series of "Tableaux of the Allies," arranged under the direction of Paul Bartlett, the distinguished sculptor, Mrs. George Howard, and Mrs. Garrison McClintock. These tableaux, in which many of the loveliest of the younger members of Washington society will pose, will be similar to those given last summer at the home of Mrs. Herman Geisler at Newport.

Under Mr. Bartlett's direction the tableaux will constitute an interesting departure from the usual, being staged rather than pictorial. Spain will be represented by Miss Nona McAdoo; Portugal, by Miss Juliette Croby; Russia, by Miss Margaret Perin; Italy, by Miss Delano; France, by Countess Gizeyka as Joan of Arc; Britannia, by Miss Ethel Harriman; Serbia, by a family group; Belgium, by Mrs. Nathan Wyeth, and Montenegro, by some men in national costume. There will also be a tableau in which Mrs. Charles Munn will represent War and another tableau in which all the ladies will be given a part, representing the ideal for which they are fighting.

Some Interesting People.

The British Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice, the Chief Justice and Mrs. White, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, the Spanish Ambassador and Mrs. de Riano, the Italian Ambassador and Countess Macchi di Cellere are among the many interesting people who will attend the opening entertainment this evening.

Others who have reserved tables from which a view of the tableaux may be had are the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips, Minister of Salvador and Mrs. Zaldívar, the Misses Patten, Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair, the Minister of Sweden and Mrs. Ekstrom, Mr. and Mrs. William Lillaur, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. Lons, Mrs. John B. Nichols, Mrs. William Clark Prentiss, and Mrs. William M. Weaver.

The fair is designed to have a distinct social usefulness from the fact that it is to be held while the horse show is in progress and only a few blocks from the ring. The gates of the garden will be open at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8:30 in the evening.

Octagon House, which is today the home of the American Institute of Architects, is a fine example of early colonial architecture, and is of immense historic interest.

Signed Treaty For Ghent.

Here President James Madison, in 1815, signed the treaty of Ghent, which began a period of peace with Great Britain extending uninterruptedly from that time to the present day.

The house itself was built and completed in 1800 by Col. John Taylor, whose lavish hospitality was renowned throughout the country. He died in 1828.

The list of his guests includes the names of Jefferson Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Decatur, Porter, Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Sir Edward Thornton, British minister, Lafayette and others.

The architect was Dr. William Thornton, the successful competitor for the design of the Capitol. This specimen of his work represents, with its gardens, one of the most interesting survivals of early American domestic architecture. The gardens, with their box-trimmed paths and shady spaces, will have for the most part been renovated and repaired, and are being given over to a spacious dancing floor, but the old house, even to its curious round rooms, its secret tunnels, and other romantic trappings, will be open to inspection during the fête. In the garden picture, the most beautiful of the garden and its rich medieval costumes, will add a colorful touch.

WOMEN WILL GIVE HOSPITAL BENEFIT

The board of lady managers of the George Washington University Hospital are to have a benefit at the Polite Theatre on May 22. Mrs. Daniel Webster Prentiss is chairman of the committee in charge. Mrs. William Cline Borden is acting as treasurer, and Mrs. John N. Speer has charge of the boxes. Other members of the committee are Mrs. William K. Butler, Mrs. S. G. Cornwell, Mrs. Walter Harban, Mrs. Charles Lons, Mrs. John B. Nichols, Mrs. William Clark Prentiss, and Mrs. William M. Weaver.

A Circus Party.

Miss Margaret McChord will take a party of guests to the circus tomorrow evening and will entertain her guests at supper later.

Miss Lemira Gillett-Hill was hostess at an informal supper party last evening in the studio of her residence in R street.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD BANISH RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly," were listless, pain was over present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S. S. S.—nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor and happiness. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Insist upon S. S. S. If yours is a long-standing case, write for medical advice to Swift's Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin taking S. S. S. at once.—Adv.

Before Buying First Try to Secure a Beautiful

Kimball Piano Free

It costs nothing to enter this fair and square advertising contest inaugurated by Washington's Old Reliable Piano House, for the purpose of giving further publicity to the celebrated Kimball Pianos and Players, for which they are sole representatives.

SIMPLE RULES GOVERN THIS CONTEST OF SKILL

SAVE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT, AS IT WILL NOT BE REPEATED

Preface.

This distinctive offer records the third distinctive, dignified and high-grade publicity contest conducted by T. P. Culley & Son, Factory Distributors for W. W. Kimball Company, Established 1857, Capital, $5,000,000.

Why We Do This Annually.

We make this generous distribution of prizes each year for three reasons. First—To advertise our name. Second—To advertise the Kimball Piano. Third—To make it possible for a large number of families who are in need of pianos to secure a high-grade piano like the Kimball at a great saving.

Judges of Contest.

In this, as in our other contests, we place the matter of making awards entirely in the hands of disinterested parties: H. F. Thompson, of the Washington Post; G. Leonard Williams, of the Washington Star; R. E. Joyce, of the Washington Times.

$1,000 in Gold Coins.

We will give any person either in or outside the piano business $1,000 in gold who can prove the price on the piano we give away or the prices plainly marked on the Kimball Piano in our warerooms are not exactly the same as the official prices of W. W. Kimball Company as printed and sold by them in their own Chicago factory salesrooms.

How to Win One of These Prizes

The awards will be given to the persons who are able to write the four words, KIMBALL PIANOS ONE PRICE, the greatest number of times (upon one side only) on any piece of plain paper, exactly 3 by 5 inches in dimensions. Spelling will not be accepted. Each contestant must write their name and address plainly on the back of the paper they submit and state the number of times they have written the four words, KIMBALL PIANOS ONE PRICE, also stating if they have an organ, square piano, upright piano or player-piano.

Mail or Bring Your Answer to Our Store, 523 Eleventh Street Northwest, so as to Reach Our Office Not Later Than 6 P. M. Saturday, May 13, 1916.

Mark Envelope in Which You Submit Your Answers, "Advertising Dept."

Only one member of a family allowed to contest and only one answer accepted from the same contestant. No one in our employ or connected with the piano trade in any way permitted to enter this contest.

Those Who Have Won Pianos in Any Other Previous Contest Not Allowed to Enter.

Genuine Kimball Piano Given Away

The person writing "KIMBALL PIANOS ONE PRICE" the greatest number of times according to the rules of the contest will be awarded a $25 Kimball Piano.

The person sending the next largest list will be awarded a $10 Kimball Piano.

For the next 50 largest lists, Purchasing Checks for $75 each will be awarded.

For the next 100 largest lists, Purchasing Checks for $50 each will be awarded.

All other contestants sending in good lists will be awarded $25 Purchase Checks.

In Event of a Tie—A prize identical in every respect to that tied for will be awarded by the judges to each tying contestant.

The True and Exact Value of the Purchase Checks

The prize purchase checks are positively good for whatever amount they call for as discount from the regular established factory retail prices of W. W. Kimball Company, the makers of Kimball Pianos—man or boy Kimball Piano or Kimball Player-Piano, if purchased at the Washington warerooms of T. P. Culley & Son, between May 15 and June 3, 1916. One purchase check only accepted on the same instrument.
